SUNDAY, MAY 10, 1864.

POST-OFFICE RETURNS 1862.

There is no more infallible index of the progress of a country than its post-office returns, for, in the present day, letters and newspapers are synonymous with commerce, education, and prosperity. The Postal Gazette vol. VI., just published by our able and untiring Postmaster-general, reveals the most gigantic increase in this department, and we should scarcely credit the figures were they not guaranteed by official and ... ring dates,

Since 1859 the letters and newspapers received in B. Ayres have more than daubled whilst those despatched hence have increased nine-fold. The official correspondence has been tripled; and the letters to and from the country parts of this province, in 1863 are exactly ten times the number returned for 1859. The list of private boxes in the Correo has only risen 50 per cent owing to the exorbitant charge for this convenience; but the street delivery of letters has more than quintupled. The despatch of the auxiliary office at the Capitania has also grown prodigiously.

In 1859 the total number of letters passing through the post of B. Ayres was 226,512. and in 1863 this increased to 803,185. The newspaper of 1859 amounted to 204,282, and of 1863 to 541,867. During these four years of interval the greatest increase falls to 1863, the total business of the Post-office having doubled in comparison with the previous year.

The most wonderful item is newspapers: in 1860 the number despatched hence was only 18,640, or one-quarter the present circulation of the Standard outside this city. In 1863 the number shows an increase of thirteen-fold, amounting to stupendous figure of 245,000.

The postal returns of B. Ayres may be almost taken for those of the whole Argentine Republic, the former being more than two thirds of the sum of the 14 provinces. The percentage is as follows: B. Ayres 67, Santa Fe 11, Entre Rios 9, Cordoba 4, Mendoza 2, San Juan 1½, Corrientes 1, the other seven provinces 4½ p. c.

The revenues of the Post-office are not yet sufficient to meet its expenses but it is likely that before long this department will even prove a lucrative branch of the exchequer, the sale of postage-stamps in 1863 being just double that of 1861.

Sor Posados mentions that the mania for collecting old postage-stamps was so great that they were even forged, as he supposes in Europe, although not of the present model, nor seemingly for illicit circulation.

The mail-service of the Interior has been much improved, shewing 309 journeys last year, to and from Rosario, carrying altogether 15 tons of correspondence, of which three fourths were newspapers, gratis.

Registered letters from England have been received since 1859, the receipts being sent home to London in due form. In the first year they only numbered 141, but in 1863 the figure had risen to 632.

An International Postal Congress was held in Paris, May 11th 1863, and Sor H. F. Varela named as Argentine Delegate, but owing to his own indiscretion or the hostility of the French Cabinet, he was denied admission.

Amongst the complaints, during last year, appears that of D. Lucas Gonsalez who lost 2250 depreciated paper dollars sent him under envelope by a friend in Rosario, in violation of the established rules. Also some ten thousand protests about Illustrated London News and other printed papers said to be mislaid in the post-office of this city.

The fines for sending letters outside mail-bags unstamped were 12, each $100 m/c. During the Flores war in Banda Oriental, the malle-bags from Salto have been twice lost, but we believe they contained nothing of great importance.

Sor Posadas has introduced many striking reforms into the Postal administration: he has procured from Europe a new press for stamps, and a perforating machine. He has has not only kept pace with the gigantic increase of business, but placed the office, every year, on a better footing, and is continually making advancement. The private auxiliary city offices, street delivery, and 'Registered' system, have been introduced by him with signal success, and convenience to the public. He now proposes to get up a Dead letter office, and to bring from England some experienced telegraph clerks to instruct Argentines to work the wires when laid down on the railways in construction.

There are many other reforms which we could suggest to the Postmaster-general, especially the carriage of letters and papers by the Diligences, which is at present unsatisfactory. But we will conclude our review by acknowledging the great efforts of Sor Posadas to place his important administration on a European level, and returning him thanks as a valuable public servant the Rowland Hill of South America.

CAMP REFORM.

The present state of the camps of Buenos Ayres is such, that if the Governor or the Ministers, or the Justices of the Peace or the Alcaldes do not at once adopt measures, Mexico in its worst days will be outdone by Buenos Ayres.

It is fashionable in this city to talk of the lamentable state of the provinces the poverty and ignorance of the Provincials, and the insecurity of life and property north of the Arroyo Medio, but this is false and incorrect, and so notorious has the impunity for crime and license for the gauchos, become in Buenos Ayres, that the cut-throats and robbers who are unable to live in the other provinces are flocking into this, and if a proper census were taken we doubt not that Government would discover that the real cause of the great increase of crime in the camp is the augmentation of vagabond gauchos from all points of the Argentine compass.

Formerly—any native passing from one partido to another was required to have a passport, to escape arrest. We believe the law has never been repealed, but now-a-days the gauchos go where they like, and no questions are asked; the consequence is that every night horses are stolen and driven from one partido to another; crimes are daily perpetrated, and the offender goes to the next village town; cattle are killed every night, and the meat and hide distributed amongst the robbers—nine years ago, when Pastor Obligado was Governor, such was not the case.

In former years card-playing was strictly prohibited in the pulperias; the law though still in force, is never carried out, neither is it necessary; for the gauchos now when they assemble at the pulperias invariably prefer talking politics to playing 'monte.'

The province of Buenos Ayres is going headlong to the devil, and we can prove it. There are at this moment in Buenos Ayres over fifty young men possessed of a fair capital who have come to this country expressly to invest in sheep-farming in this province—why have they not gone to the camp? why are they leaving for Entre Rios or Santa Fe? Answer us Gov. Saavedra, you who have sworn to perform the duties of chief ruler of this province. Why are sheep selling cheaper to-day than eight years ago, although everything else has risen in proportion as the paper dollar has depreciated? Why has a native estanciero offered to sell 600 head of horned cattle at $65 per, give land free for the pasturage of said cattle for eight months, and yet been unable to find a purchaser? Why was the owner of a flock of fine mestiza sheep in the partido of Pilar forced to sell them at five dollars less then what sheep were worth eight years ago, when ounces were 300 dollars—and to give the purchaser two years time to pay without interest? We answer—

Because Mariano Saavedra is Governor of Buenos Ayres.

Because M. Acosta is Prime Minister.

We appeal to the oldest native gentleman in the country if ever there was a time when murders and robberies were more frequent than at present, when life and property were less secure.

Republicanism in the camp is nothing else than licence to rob and murder.

Despotism is law, order, and protection.

We raise our voice now in the vain hope that natives themselves will see the urgent necessity for rigorous relief. Let it not be supposed that we appeal to public opinion solely on behalf of Irish sheep-farmers. No—On behalf of every honest hard-working man, whether native or foreigner, in the country, we come with the Constitution in our hands and demand protection for life and property.

Full well we know the difficulties attending a thorough camp reform. Dr. Alsina it appears became so puzzled that his reformatory efforts were as it were asphixiated—but if we ask for reform, if we ask for protection, it is not to be supposed that we cannot point out a sound feasible way of effecting it. We propose the following measures.

1st. In every partido appoint a comandante, whose word should be law, who should be only amenable to a committee in town, and who, if a murder or robbery was committed in his partido, and the offender escaped, should be punished by 12 months imprisonment and hard labour.

2nd. Let a committee be at once appointed in Buenos Ayres to try every camp question or appeal, let the jurisdiction be summary, and a public example made of the first camp official who neglects his duty.

3rd. Stop all the mercachifles in the country, of every name, nature and description.

4th. Let the comandante of each partido know the name, occupation and address of every person in his partido—what means each has of support.

5th. Every man who could not prove to the satisfaction of the comandante his occupation and means of support, should be at once arrested, and sent to a convict establishment in the Islands of the Parana, where rice and tobacco should be cultivated by order of the Government.

6th. Abolish all electioneering in the camp, and allow no man to vote who could not read and write, and show property worth twenty thousand dollars.

7th. Every criminal should be tried within three days after his arrest in the partido where the offence was commited by a jury of six, composed half of foreigners, a majority being sufficient to give a verdict.

There are a few other steps to be taken, which now for want of room we omit, but we shall recur to this matter again, and explain our measures more fully.

We ask and implore of our colleagues to take this matter up, and join with us in demanding immediate camp reform. If something is not done, and that something done at once, mestiza sheep will soon be selling at 20 paper dollars with ten years plazo without interest and cattle considerably cheaper.

EDITOR'S TABLE

Sr. Llavallol's answer, to the President of the Provincial Chambers, could not be more explicit, and shows clearly that the banner of the Cocido senators is 'no surrender.' A meeting was held at the Provincial Chambers on Saturday. There were only eight members present. The resignations sent in were discussed, and it was unanimously agreed then and there, that the Government should order new elections.

It appears, according to what our colleague, 'El Pueblo,' says, that there is a sort of Ministerial crisis in the Provincial Government House. M. Acosta, the prime provincial minister, is to be removed, and Don Adolfo Alsina is to succeed him. We refrain from offering our opinion on the matter, but people in town say, 'that it is out of the frying-pan into the fire.'

There are some strange rumours in town about affairs in Cordova. It is said that in the country districts there has been a rising, and that many lives were lost. We cannot vouch much for the truth of this report, but there seems to be something wrong in that quarter.

Yesterday, there was a private session of the Senators of Congress. The election of the new Senators for San Juan was discussed, and, we believe, approved of.

The Pavon, on Saturday, brought down a batch of prisoners from Rosario, for what object we know not, unless to facilitate their escape, and cause additional expense to the Treasury. We cannot understand why Rosario criminals should not be tried and punished in Rosario; the whole system of administering justice in this country 'is out of joint.'

The steamer, Gran Chaco, has at last arrived from Esquina. She is gone to the Boca to be repaired.

The Menay has at last passed into the hands of the Government. As a war vessel she is utterly useless, and as a passenger steamer she is almost worn out. The best thing Minister Gelly Obes can do is to raffle her.

A Brazilian gentleman, named Don Jose Coelho de Olivie, has arrived in Montevideo, from Rio Janeiro, in search of a person named Juan Antonio de Moraes, formerly a money broker in Rio, who fled recently from that city to the River Plate, having robbed Don Oliviera's father of two hundred thousand patacons, and several other families in Rio of very heavy amounts. Mr. Oliviera offers five hundred patacons reward for any information which will lead to the arrest of Moraes.

The Brazilian squadron is now arriving at Montevideo, and an army of occupation of ten thousand men is about to cross the frontier.

The Baron Maua leaves for England, per next English packet. We are surprised that Don Gomez does not use his influence to stop the Baron's departure for Europe, until satisfactory explanation is given of the intentions of Brazil, and of the Baron's motives for making a trip to Europe.

The American man-of-war, Waterwing, was to have left Montevideo for Valparaiso, on yesterday. She takes a mail.

The steamer arrived yesterday morning from Montevideo. All the news published by the 'Tribuna,' about Flores, turns out, as we predicted, to be entirely false. Flores fled from Moreno, and attacked Florida, where he was most signally repulsed by a handful of men.

A conspiracy, it appears, was defeated by Government on board the General Artigas. The President got news of it at 10 o'clock at night, and immediately despatched 50 men, all armed to the teeth, who at once boarded the steamer, and arrested the ring-leaders, who were agents of Flores.

A farmer, from Pilar, states that the camps in that district are at present in splendid condition, but that in consequence of the multitude of thistles, many farmers who were obliged to remove last summer during the drought, are still away, as they fear to return until the thistles are harder. Still, however, the prospect of the farmers this year could not be better.

The largest cargo of wheat and flour ever known to have arrived in Montevideo, from Chile, entered that port on the 4th inst. The Anna Kell, consigned to Messrs. Nicholson, Green, and Co., 1408 sacks of first-class flour, 400 do., various classes, 431 do., beans, 6600 quintals flour.

In justice to Mr. Sampson, Consul-general at London, we have to assure our readers that so far from joining Mr. Robertson in opposition to the Cordoba Railway, we have undeniable proofs to his steady adhesion and fidelity to Mr. Wheelwright and the great Argentine enterprise.

Mr. Flower is at length free from loathsome and unjust captivity which he suffered during so many months, for having killed a gaucho in self defence. Being released at once after trial it is clear he was quite innocent, and we must deplore the miserable state of the laws; delaying trials for months and years. Flower is now instituting a charge of conspiracy to murder him, against the alcalde, as we are informed.

The Istria had a terrible passage between the Irish channel and cape Finisterre, suffering a hurricane of 30 hours' duration: the passengers were put under closed hatches for security. There was no occurrence on the voyage, except speaking two vessel: the captain and passengers arrived here on the very best terms, after 85 days.

It is rumored that the furniture and good-will of the Hotel de La Paz have been sold to an English Co, for 80,000 $ silver but M. Vincent contradicts this statement.

The island of Martin Garcia has been almost left without a garrison; the only troops now there being about 100 of the Artillery. Admiral Muratore is at present in this city, in infirm health.

A great foot-race came off between two Englishmen, on Thursday morning, from the Cafe Amisted, Paseo Julio, to some place near the Recoleta: the winner is a Cumberland man, and he treated his friends to a champagne breakfast after the race.

It is supposed Congress may be inaugurated on Thursday, 12th inst., but the day is not fixed, as the National Government means to secure a quorum, even should the Crudo members absent themselves.

We have received a communication from Captain Bruce which we shall publish to morrow.

THE REIGN OF TERROR

Daring Burglary

Capture of the robbers

On Sunday night, the hardware store of Mr. Hargreaves, in calle Piedad, was broken into by some ruffians, who counted on the present effete condition of our police, and impunity for crime to carry out their unlawful intents. Although the occurrence took place within a few yards of the Sereno's post and only two blocks from the Policia the robbers would have sacked the house unmolested but for the activity and courage of Mr. Hargreaves, who took his revolver and, seizing the burglars conveyed them in person to the Policia. We hope that some heavier punishment than a fine of $100 m/c. will be inflicted: in fact there is no security for life or property, under Sor Cazon's administration, and it will be necessary to shoot five or six dozen of notorious malefactors, before the city can be considered habitable.

ANOTHER STREET ROBBERY

Shocking Outrage

On Saturday afternoon at half past six o'clock a gentleman's servant resident in calle Venezuela was returning home from Mr. Hastler's drapery store with a parcel of velvet hats, when he was waylaid by some ruffians who knocked him down and carried off his parcel. The robbery was effected in calle Esmeralda, close to the Women's Hospital, one of the most frequented thoroughfares of our city; yet the robbers escaped without the least molestation either on the part of the police or of the passers-by. The servant is a most trust-worthy man who has been twenty years in his master's employment.

In our last impression we noticed the attempt to rob two English ladies of their shawls, about six o'clock in the afternoon, in calle Victoria. So daring and frequent have these outrages become in our most public streets, owing to the want of proper police, that as Mr. Hastler assures us, the drapery business suffers severely, few ladies having the courage to go shopping in the afternoon. It is useless for M. Cazon and some snobbish Englishmen to affect doubting "the reign of terror." When doctors have to carry revolvers in their visits, and ladies to stop at home after sunset, for fear of street robbers, we may fairly conclude that law and order in B. Ayres have become a dead letter.

THE POLITICAL CRISIS.

Governor Saavedra and the Provincial Chambers of B. Ayres find themselves in a most extraordinary dilemma, being obliged either to resign en masse or violate the Constitution. After the bloody affair of April 22nd, several members in disgust resolved to throw up their seats, and as the senators had denounced the last elections as a fraud that Chamber could not consistently meet the intruders in Assembly. A quorum cannot be got, to order new elections, and the whole Legislature is paralyzed.

An arrangement was spoken of last week between Sr. Riestra, President of the Senate, and D. Ambrosio Lezica, a Cocido leader. The terms were: to annul the last elections, reform the electoral law, and order new elections. This arrangement, however, has not been feasible, and it is said a split has occurred among the Crudo party, some of whom are for a coup d'etat, by ordering new elections even without a quorum, but to this Sr. Riestra and others are opposed.

Meantime rumor goes that the extreme faction has prevailed, and that we are to have new elections next Sunday, when if proper precautions be not taken we may expect renewed riots and bloodshed. If the Cocidos replace the members resigned, we shall be just in the same predicament as before; if the Crudos gain five more seats, they will present a bolder front, and we may expect to see open war declared to the tottering National administration. The Governor and President are in a cul de sac.

NEW ELECTIONS.

The 'Nacional' publishes the decree of Governor Saavedra, ordering new elections for six seats vacated in the Senate, to take place on Sunday, 15th inst. The seventh is to be elected on Sunday, June 26th.

THE PACIFIC

Dates have arrived here from Santiago de Chile, up to the 15th. Chile was quiet and progressing rapidly.

Eleven gentlemen of the road who had been tried and sentenced to death, attempted to escape from the Santiago prison, but, luckily for the public, they failed in their attempt, and were secured a little more strongly.

The Congress proposed by Peru has met with better success than the hanting of Louis Napoleon, for Venezuela, Nueva Granada, Chile, and Bolivia have agreed to attend. The difficulty between Spain and Peru, caused by the murder of some Spanish subjects, is likely to be diplomatically arranged. Spain had accredited to Peru, as special envoy on this matter, Don Eusebio Salazar y Mazarredo.

The unfortunate result of Sr. Frias' mission has caused great grief in Peru. The popular Peruvian sentiment is in favor of Chile, and the Cabinet of President Pezet disapproves of the stubborn behaviour of the Bolivian agent. The new coinage in Peru had come into circulation. The Peruvian dollar is now worth 80 cents, Chile money.

Bronze coin has also replaced the old copper cents, and quartos. Peru, upon the whole, is flourishing under the rule of General Pezet.

Bolivia has requested of France a renewal of diplomatic relations. The Bolivian Government newspaper, the 'Causa Nacional,' publishes a note from the Tuileries, in which the French Government agree to receive Marshal Santa Cruz as Bolivian diplomatic agent. The same paper also publishes 1½ columns of a vindication of the character of General Belzù, who was, most undoubtedly, the best President Bolivia ever had.

INDIAN INVASIONS.

Ballesteros, April 24, 1864.

To Colonel D. Cesario Dominguez.

I have just arrived in the frontier of the north, which was invaded by Indians on the 20th inst., having pursued them 7 leagues in the province of Santa Fe, without being able to catch them, but have succeeded in making them leave behind them the cattle which they had stolen.

In this invasion 31 Indians have been killed, and a great many horses carried off.

Judging from the tracks, and other signs, they must belong to the Sauce de Santiago.

The desperate state of this Department, makes me request the loan of 10 or 15 carbines, and some lances, and more especially some ball cartridge, in order to supply the picquet Aberias, as also for distribution amongst some trustworthy persons, at different places, who could meet at an appointed spot, at a moment's warning.

I trust you will do me this favour, as well as use your influence with the National Government, for the unfortunate people in this distict.

BELSOR MOYANO.

Azul, April 30, 1864.

To General Paunero,

I have the honor to inform you that the Chileno Indians, to the number of 400 or 500, surprised at 3 p.m., on the 26th inst., the fort Resistencia, situated at the Lake Calchunnco, seizing all the horses and driving away cattle to the number of 2000.

That same morning, at 10 a.m., I had marched with the 3rd Battalion of the Line, and 40 Indians of the Cacique Calfuquir (all that I could collect at the time), and was encamped 7 leagues from this place, when I received news, at half-past 11 p.m., of the invasion of fort Resistencia.

I, at once, detailed Captain Matias Minana, of the National Guards, to collect all the horses that he could from the neighbours, and I started for fort Barrancosa, where I arrived at 10 a.m., the following day, with 160 horses, 13 National Guards, 22 soldiers of the Guias Regiment, taken from the forts. I then marched in the direction of the lakes of Artalejo, keeping them to my left until I reached the Sauce Corto, where I camped, having marched 46 leagues in 30 hours.

Colonel Nicolas Ocampo I had left in this spot, ordering him to send me all the horses and Indians that he could collect. I waited two days at Sauce Corto; and in spite of sending out spies in all directions, the Indians had already left, and I had the disgust of returning without fighting them; besides, neither horses nor Indians arrived, and only on my return I met the latter, but I was badly mounted, so that pursuit was out of the question, else I would have gone as far as the Pigue. I have also to inform you that the commander of Fort Resistencia is a prisoner here, and I am preparing a summary of the whole affair which, when finished, I shall send to Government.

I cannot omit drawing your attention to the bravery and constancy with which the 3rd of the Line, and the other troops which accompanied me, underwent the privations and fatigues of this expedition. I have to mention particularly the zeal and activity of the captain of the National Guards, Don Matias Minana, and citizens Don Mariano Roldan, Don Zorilo Prado, and others who voluntarily accompanied me, assisting me with horses, &c.

I can assure you, that had not fate been against us, we would have given the Indians a severe thrashing, as was our duty, but let us hope that a more favourable opportunity may soon present itself.

J. RIVAS.

GREAT CONFLAGRATION.

On Monday afternoon there was a loud smell of some rubbish burning in the Casa de Moneda, but whether the stench arose from 4 millions of paper dollars, depreciated currency, or from old sugar wrappers provided for the occasion by the grocers, no one could tell us, in order to prevent a similar accident to that which happened at the last incremation (so many thousand dollars going up the spout) the management has carefully provided against all draughts, either of air or of brokers, by closing and keeping closed the doors of the the Directorio, and although several small boys were seen flattening their noses against the glass doors, and one of the staff of the morning newspapers was seen frantically rushing about, asking, "Where, oh where is the burning going on?" still nothing definite is known of the value of the rubbish destroyed. One of the clerks of the Casa de Moneda told our reporter confidentially that a box of vesper matches and a second-hand bellows had been purchased that morning.

We can vouch for something having been burned, for on the azotea of the Bank we were almost suffocated by the dense clouds of pungent smoke which issued from the chimney spout of the Directorio—but what that something was, we decline to give our opinion.

WHALEBOAT MISSING.

THREE PILOTS LOST

We regret to say, that for some time past a whaleboat has been missing. It was thought at first that she might have been blown down in the last storm to the coast of Ensenada, but as nothing has since been heard of her, there are fears that she is lost.

Mr. M'Dermott, the well-known and popular pilot, was one of the three pilots on board.

Our Montevidean Correspondent.

A letter from the army, which you will find in the 'Reforma Pacifica,' gives an account of Flores' attack on Florida where a handful of men repulsed his whole army. Several rumours have been going about since, of his approaching Montevideo, but, as you very well know, none are to be relied upon. Yesterday I was speaking with a young man who had come in from the camp (from near Durazno) and he had seen nothing of Flores. He passed through Florida, and the account they gave him was that there was only 25 men in the place when Flores attacked them with 500.

In the 'Pais' of the 6th inst. you will find a description of the American war steamer 'Wateree,' which arrived on Tuesday from Bahia. I myself intend going on board on Sunday, and if you like to wait I will write you a description of her by next steamer. A large Brazilian man-of-war, the 'Amazona,' arrived yesterday from Rio: she is one of the Brazilian squadron now under orders for this station.

Thanks for the 'Standards' I received this morning. By the bye, I note the challenge sent to the Montevideo Cricket Club, which, in my opinion will be accepted. On the 5th a match was played between the Club and the officers of the 'Satellite' and the 'Alecto,' and the officers got an awful 'licking.' I heard one or two say that they would like to beat the Buenos Ayreans.

Mr. William Cranwell, father of your agent, died of an apopletic fit yesterday morning, at eleven.

A concert is to be given this month by the Germans, for the benefit of the Hospital de la Caridad, and a ball at the Club on the 25th.

Syntax to the Rescue.

To the Editors of the Standard.

Gentlemen,

I am sure the contributors to your journal must feel themselves unspeakably indebted to the 'warning voice' from the 'Elysian Fields,' of their ever memorable friend and youthful instructor 'Lindley Murray.' But I cannot forbid myself concluding, after a quiet perusal of this communication from the domain of spirits that, my early school companion must have either abandoned his mundane precepts, or that liquids of a more potent character than 'a dish of tea' are occasionally imbibed by the favoured occupants of these delightful regions. My old master will be obliged to pardon me for saying, that his orthography, syntax, punctuation, style and language have become sadly perverted since he entered those blessed realms of immortality. Instead of dignified sentiments, there is common place vulgarity; and a chaotic rabble of words, as a model of faultless composition. And these admonitions are delivered with a spirit of satire combined with compassion! 'What spiritual simplicity!' we are tempted to ejaculate.

Certain I am that every 'educated Englishman' must have given a compassionate smile in listening to the doleful 'bray' from the 'Elysian Fields.' By some prodigious effort of genius this clayless critic alighted upon a blunder in the letter of 'C. M.,' and by some inexplicable fatality, in 'grieving to the soul' over this misfortune, he waddles in blunders from beginning to end. Had 'Lindley Murray' possessed as much sound sense and modesty, as a melancholy presumption of his literary acquirements, he would have refrained from figuring in your columns; and I would exhort him, before he again presumes to criticise your contributors, and enlighten the public, to make himself more conversant with the practical application of his own precepts. If the 'schoolmaster is not abroad,' it must be admitted that he has sent forth pupils who, in assuming his office, neither illumine his merits, nor add lustre to his fame. It must be granted that some men display more brains than purity in their writings; and judging from the specimen in to-day's Standard from our 'spiritual instructor,' I am constrained to believe that 'Lindley Murray' is not over-burdened with an affluence of either.

Yours most obediently,

A CLERK.

OBITUARY

It is our painful duty to chronicle the demise of one of the most respected resident foreigners in Montevideo, Mr. William Cranwell.

Mr. Cranwell was a native of Carlow, Ireland, and during his long residence in Montevideo had endeared himself to all in that city.

Anxious to pay the last tribute of respect to the memory of a man who was deservedly esteemed by all, we make these obituary remarks. He died we regret to say, rather suddenly, from a fit of apoplexy, in his 56th year.

Melancholy as it is to remark the old standard foreigners passing from amongst us, it is at least a consolation to think that their names and characters are revered by the pilgrims who follow in their footprints.

Paper price of ounces 402 1/2.

The sudden rise in specie to day excited the greatest surprise; buyers forcash and for the end of the month at $28 90 everywhere presented themselves. People could hardly realize the fact that to day four millions of paper money was burnt, since by the quotations of patacons it looked more as if they had been emitted.

There were certain rumours current on the Bolsa, which as we regard them as bolas, we abstain from publishing. The feeling on the Bolsa is that patacons are going up, and that the political state of affairs in the city is not the best. Brokers hem and haw and look up at the glass roof muttering some unintelligible sentences about the elections next Sunday, the artillery cut of the city, camp chasques, &c. Money is getting tight, and business slack—this is a bad sign.

The Parana has arrived in Montevideo with 5000 barrels of Baltimore flour, consigned to Messrs. Freyer Hermanos.

Respecting the new private banking scheme, which we mentioned on Sunday, we learn that it met with the approval of Government, and will be laid before Congress immediately. The company asks the right of emission, and agrees to introduce two millions sterling into the country, lend same on bond and mortgage, on the public lands belonging to the Government, and pledge the vouchers or titles to said land with the comptroller, in lieu of the notes which they emit. The scheme is plausible, and very probably will be carried out, if the R.M.D. is forthcoming; but we think we have enough of private banks at present for the business wants of the place, and banking business, when overdone, leads to the most fearful monetary panics.

In the wool markets we notice less animation than usual. Many lots of prime wool, which arrive now, are placed in deposit, the owners refusing to accede to the buyers' pretensions.

In freights we hear there is nothing doing, cargo is scarce, and we believe ships also.

A small quantity (200 or 300 arr.) of cotton in the seed is expected in town from Mr. Gimenez' plantation in Corrientes, per next steamer. Parties wishing to inspect it will please call at this office.

SAVINGS BANK
BANK MAUA & C°
No. 103 calle de Cangallo.

BUENOS-AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current are now so generally felt, and appreciated in the two great emporiums of the River Plate—Montevideo & Buenos Ayres—that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the Bank in which they place the most confidence.

The Bank of Mauá & Co, in Montevideo has already provided for the working class in that city, a safe & profitable depositary for their savings.

The sums deposited in that most important institution are daily increasing and already reach a very large amount.

These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of Clerks, artisans, working-men & servants of all classes & conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need, sickness or old age, instead of spending them in the immoral gambling, in lotteries and other trivellities.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. of this city following the example of their firm in Montevideo now offer the same facilities in this city and will open on the 1st October a "Savings Bank" at No. 103 calle Cangallo from 9 a. m. to 3 p. m. on week days, and on Sundays and holidays from 10 a. m. to 12 m. for the reception of the savings of the classes already mentioned.

The Bank will deliver to each depositor a Pass Book in which will be entered the amount deposited and withdrawn.

The depositor is permitted at any time to withdraw the whole or part of the sum deposited, in the former case the interest will be calculated up to date.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. is sufficiently known to the public by the benefit derived from the course of its operations which are regulated on the strictest and soundest principles and always directed to promote the general welfare.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. are also persuaded that this new branch of their business will render immense service to the working classes of Buenos Ayres and its neighbourhood.

Buenos Ayres September 19th 1863.

p. p. Mauá & Co.
WILLIAM LESLIE.

CONDITIONS.

1st. The Bank receives at interest any sum from Twenty five dollars currency or one silver dollar upwards.

2nd. The interest allowed is six per cent [6 p%] per annum which is liquidated every six months.

3rd. The depositor can at any time retire the whole or part of the money deposited.

4th. Once the amount deposited exceeds Twenty five thousand dollars currency or one thousand dollars silver the depositor if he wishes can open an account current according to the rules established by the Bank.

5th. In case the depositor loses his Pass Book it can be replaced by another on paying twelve dollars currency, and advertising the loss in the public newspapers.

Subscriptions in Paper Money.

The Directors, wishing to enlarge the operations of the Society, have acceded to the request of many people in this city, and determined to issue shares payable in Paper Money of Buenos Ayres, under the following conditions:—

Article 65—From the 1st of April, 1864, shares shall be issued to such persons as may wish to pay in Paper Money of Buenos Ayres, and in accordance with Article 17 chapter 5 of the Statutes of the Society, the lowest sum receivable being $200 annually, payable in one sum, or in instalments, subject to the following rules:

1st—For Paper Money Subscribers sections will be opened and kept separate from Silver Money Subscribers.

2nd—The liquidation of the sums belonging to the sections of Paper Money Subscribers will be administered according to Article 31 of the Statutes, and for account of those particular sections.

By these means the Directory hopes to gain its object which is to enable the poorer classes to enjoy all the advantages of the Society.
